

140 Thorpe Hall Avenue

View of development from neighbouring site

View of development from neighbouring site

View of development from neighbouring site

View of the development from Fermoy Road

View of the development from the rear elevation of the main dwelling

View of the development from the rear elevation of the main dwelling

View of the development

The site (right) and the neighbouring properties to the south.

The neighbouring garden to the south

View from the location of the development towards the north